

Sinclair Broadcast Group's plan to broadcast (read cram down the public's throat propaganda in the guise of "news") the so-called documentary "Stolen Honor" is galling. The only honor that's being stolen here is that of the American people and you've helped that along by allowing media conglomerates to be formed by merger after merger after merger so now we have all media owned by about 5 people. And these five people all seem to be conservative, right-wing demagogues intent on spreading lies and half-truths to further their own agenda. Case in point: when most people think "media" in this country, they think "liberal media." Nothing could be further from the truth but the conservatives push that label because they've convinced voters that liberal=bad, liberal=tax/spend and liberal=homosexual/aethiest. When in truth its these right-wing, born-again, fundamentalist Christians that are ruining our country, not to mention our economy and our reputation abroad. Do your job and stop SBG from airing "Stolen Honor" and let us keep ours!
